Elder Financial Abuse
Prevention Forum:
Spotlight on Money Smart for Older Adults - Honolulu, HI

When

Wednesday, June 18, 2014
12:00 PM to 3:30 PM

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency invite you to an Elderly Financial Abuse Prevention Forum that will also spotlight the new financial education module developed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), Money Smart for Older Adults.

The purpose of this event is to focus on the issues of elder financial abuse, to call attention to some of those organizations working to combat this growing problem, particularly in low- and moderate-income households, and to spotlight a resource that can be utilized in the fight against elder financial abuse. The FDIC/CFPB's Money Smart for Older Adults is a free financial education module that instructors from banks, community-based organizations, and city and county agencies can use to bring awareness of elder financial exploitation to older adults. Box lunches will be provided at beginning of event.
